SITUATION SUMMARY

Outbreak of Legionnaires Disease at San Quentin: San Rafael, Marin County

On 08/27/15 at 1748 hours, San Quentin's Senior Emergency Management Coordinator (Sr. EMC) notified the Warning Center that an emergency procurement of drinking water will be required due to one confirmed case of Legionnaires and other inmates showing signs of possible infection.

- Marin County's Public Health Officer met with the San Quentin officials and a "do not drink or bathe" order was enforced at the facility; however, alternate water sources were procured, i.e. bottled water.
- The Cal OES Coastal Region Duty Officer (CDO) furnished the current bulk water hauler list to San Quentin's Sr. EMC.
- At 1500 on 08/28/15, the Coastal Region had a conference call with CDCR, San Quentin, Cal OES Coastal and Logistics staff, Region II RDMHC, and DGS. The LDO and Marin County EM were briefed after the call.
- San Quentin had one prisoner test positive for Legionnaire's disease, with 25 more showing similar flu/pneumonia-like systems.
- San Quentin is currently investigating the possible source of the contamination.
- Water is shut off to the prison and a do not drink/bathe order, has been issued. The prison resumed the use of plumbed toilets inside the facility's housing units, and monitored use of water for cooking as of Friday afternoon. Secondary water sources such as bottled water and water tanks will continue to be used for consumption until it is deemed safe to resume normal water use.
- Inmates are currently being served boxed meals to avoid exposure to steam and mist during cooking operations.
- At this time the major issues are:
 - Shower units - DGS will be working with the prison to support this. Portable shower units arrived at the prison on 08/29/15 for inmate use.
 - Non-alcoholic hand sanitizer for use in cells - DGS will work through their contractors.
 - Low temp freezer/cold storage units - there was a concern that the food packaging would be contaminated with water particles, but San Quentin reassured all on the call that this was not the case. DGS will be working on this issue.
- At this time, the prison is planning on needing assistance for about 2 weeks, and there are no plans to evacuate prisoners or use laundry trailers.
- San Quentin is a reception center for new inmates to the California prison system. Intake has been temporarily halted as the investigation continues.
- All inmate visiting and volunteer programs have also been halted as the investigation is ongoing.

Update: Per CDO as of 1526 hours on 08/31/15, CDCR issued an updated Press Release. Per the Press Release:

- There are six confirmed cases of inmates with Legionnaires' disease which are all being treated at SQ's on-site medical unit. Five inmates are in outside area hospitals being treated for pneumonia-like symptoms but none are confirmed to have Legionnaires' disease.
- There are 73 inmates under observation for respiratory illness but have not been diagnosed with Legionnaires' disease and are being treated at SQ's on-site medical unit.
- There have not been any confirmed cases of staff with Legionnaires' disease.
- CDO continues to work with Marin County OES, DSS Mass Care and Shelter to procure a Mobile Kitchen Unit.

WEATHER

WEATHER SYNOPSIS BY REGION:

NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

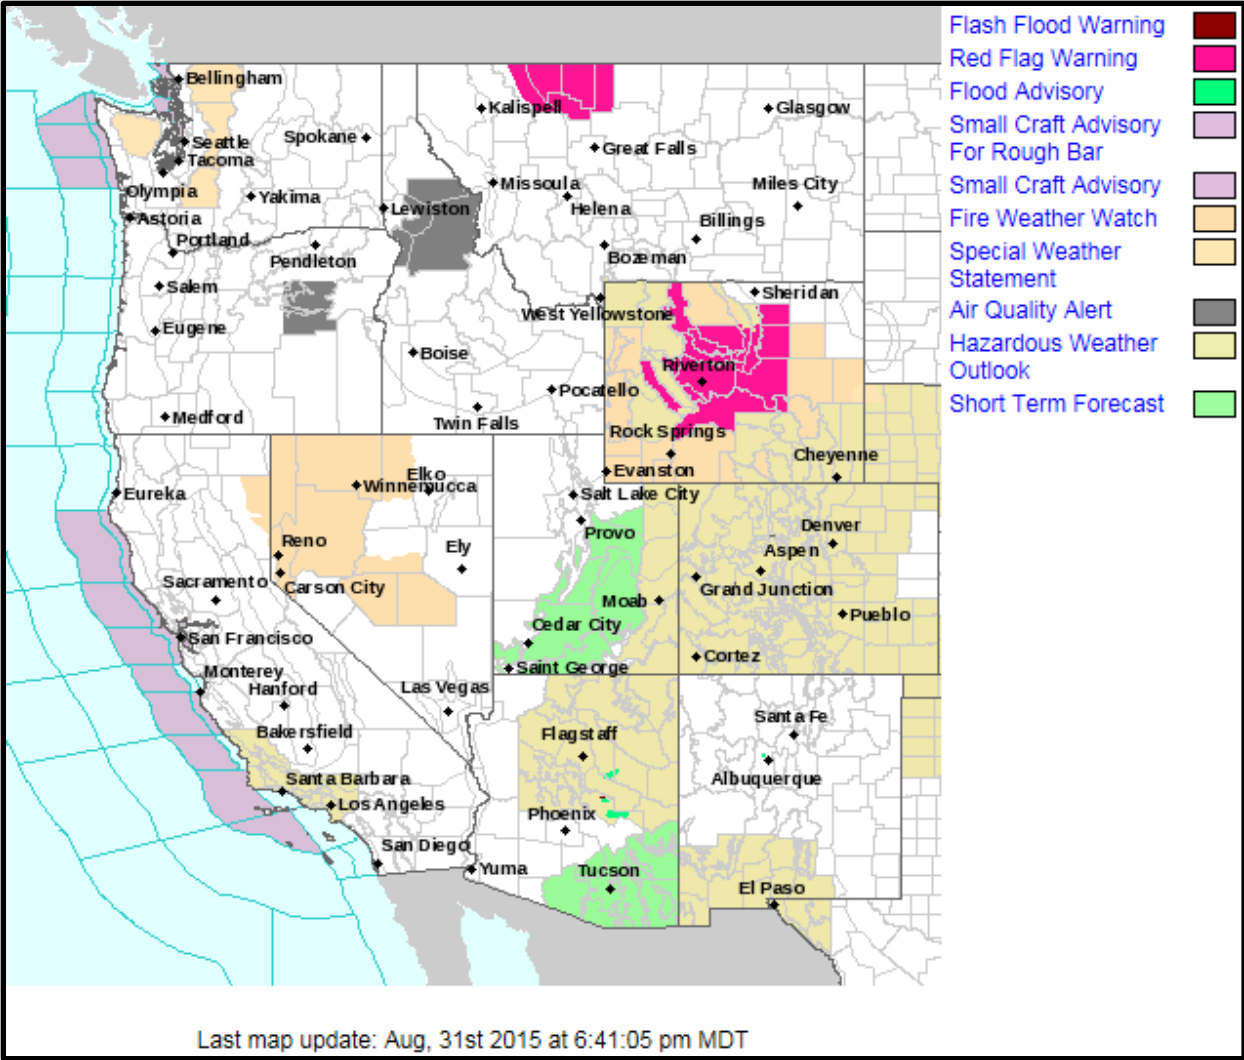

A large-scale low pressure trough will be over the West Coast through the end of the week. The trough will be a bit weaker today and temperatures should increase a bit across the northern California area under mostly sunny skies and light winds. The trough will strengthen beginning Tuesday, leading to cooler temperatures, higher relative humidity, and stronger southwest to northwest winds through Saturday. Southwest to west winds along and east of the Cascade-Sierra crest may gust to 35-45 mph in the windiest spots during the afternoons beginning Wednesday, but relative humidity will be high enough to prevent this from being a high risk event. There is also a slight chance of showers in northwestern and far northern areas Tuesday night through Thursday, and a slight chance of thunderstorms Thursday afternoon in northeastern areas. The total rainfall between now and Thursday will only be 0.10-0.20 at any given location. The remainder of the region will be mild with mostly sunny to partly cloudy skies each day. The trough will finally exit the region late Friday and a warming and drying trend will take place through Sunday or Monday. North to east downslope surface winds will enhance the warm and dry conditions from the lower western Sierra slopes to the coast Friday afternoon through midday Monday.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

Maximum temperatures will gradually cool through Friday as a Pacific trough deepens over the West Coast. Temperatures will be in the 70s to low 80s across the mountains with 80s to low 90s in the valleys today. There will be westerly winds of 15 to 25 mph with gusts to 40 mph across the desert passes through Friday evening. The marine layer will continue to deepen and be between 2,000 and 3,000 feet deep by Tuesday morning. Minimum relative humidity will continue to be mainly between 15% and 30% above and inland from the marine layer this week, but it will be between 8% and 15% across most desert locations. The trough will move off to the east this weekend bringing a little warmer and dryer conditions to the region this weekend. Afternoon winds will become lighter this weekend. No shower or thunderstorm activity is expected across the area through this weekend as dry southwest flow aloft continues.
